We require that all parties invoicing Woodpecker Film take care of all statutory insurances themselves and ensure their validity. In addition, everyone must have a valid operational liability insurance that covers self-inflicted damages, for which they are liable for compensation according to the current law.

The insurance coverage amount must be at least €500,000. Each individual must also arrange insurance for the assets they use in their work. We also recommend that every entrepreneur obtains an Entrepreneur's Accident Insurance for themselves.

The invoice must always include a production reference number or mention of a project in concern. We will not be able to process invoices with incomplete references.

Payment due in 21 days from invoice date
